Free Day of Relaxation at Schenden's Spa on the Lake for Breast Cancer Survivors and Their Supporters

Lake Orion, MI, August 30, 2007--

Free Day of Relaxation at Schenden's Spa on the Lake for Breast Cancer Survivors and Their Supporters
Sunday, October 21, 2007

"Every year during Breast Cancer Awareness month we honor women who have battled breast cancer with a free day of relaxation at Schenden's Spa on the Lake," says Michael J. Schenden, MD and Medical Director of Schenden's Spas. "This year we want to recognize that beating this disease is a team effort by honoring the survivors and the special women who walked by their sides providing much needed support throughout the fight."

To be selected for a free day at the spa, both the survivor and supporter must be female. "When we say relax, we mean relax," says Leslie Bean, Spa Director. "Participants lounge in robes and enjoy food between services, that's why we have an all female event."

Schenden's Spas massage therapists, nail technicians and aestheticians volunteer their time for this special day. Spa employees will choose eight breast cancer survivors and their nominated supporters to pamper on Sunday, October 21, 2007. "We know it is going to be difficult to choose," says Leslie Bean Spa Director, "we're hoping the nomination process itself let's the supporters know how very much they are appreciated."

Breast cancer survivors can nominate and honor the special supporter in their life at www.SchendenSpas.com. Nominations must be submitted before Monday, October 1, 2007. Selected participants will be notified by end of business on Friday, October 5, 2007.
